Our Vision

In partnership with the community, we will empower our tamariki (children), spiritually and culturally, so they will provide a valuable contribution to society, be of service to others and grow and expand our community.

Our Mission Statement

We [the Church] are mentors, role models, partners, advisors and advocates for our children and the community.

We provide guidance and education opportunities for adults and children in areas such as religion, culture, language skills and parental education.

AOTEAROA MAORI FILM FESTIVAL 2013 "WHAIA TE ITI KAHURANGI 2013"

A selection of Maori films curated by Leo Kooloi of the Wairoa Maori Film Festival, representing the pinnacle of Maori storytelling by Maori film makers in Aotearoa today.

Five of these films were curated by Wairoa Maori Film Festival for the "Nga Whanaungo" programme of the New Zealand International Film Festival in 2012, following which the programme travelled to the Sami Film Festival in Finland, Islands in the World Film Festival in Fiji, and the "Best of Wairoa Maori Film Festival" event in Hamburg.
