

Kahui Wahine – Finding Us Series

Get the Most from Your Personal and Professional Relationships

Saturday, 17 April 2010

Church of Te Wairua Tapu

9.45 am for 10.00 am start

Understanding your personal and professional relationships is vital to success in any situation.

Why are relationships so important?

Relationships are probably the most important component of our lives. We want them to work, and we want them to be happy, healthy and fulfilling. We want them to be a wonderful expression of who we are. When our relationships are going well, our life is going well.

This interactive workshop will:

- Help you understand how people interact, in a completely different way
- Introduce you to the Five Key Human Connections
- Give you the clues you need to assess your relationships
- Help you to understand how you can make changes immediately

Everyone Welcome - Bring a Friend!

Cost: $10 and a plate of food to share
